This application is reviewed pursuant to Section 90-398 of the City of Key West Land Development Regulations (LDRs). The City's LDRs can be found on the City's Website at https://library.municode.com/fl/key_west

The review process for administrative variances is as follows:

1. Complete application submitted to Planning Department.
2. Review by the Development Review Committee (DRC).
3. Within 3 weeks of the DRC meeting, the city planner completes review and renders a proposed decision to approve, approve with conditions or deny in writing, after obtaining the concurrence of the city manager.
4. Planning Department provides written notice of the proposed decision and gives 30 working days to request a public hearing. If a public hearing is not requested, the city planner will issue the written decision to approve or deny. If a public hearing is requested, the Planning Board will review the application according to the procedures for regular variances.
5. If the city planner issues a denial, the applicant may file a written objection, and the Planning Board will review the request according to the procedures for regular variances.

A. ADMINISTRATIVE VARIANCE CRITERIA: Before any administrative variance may be granted by the Planning Director, the applicant must demonstrate that all of the applicable standards in City Code Section 90-398 are met. All applicants must complete Part A. For special accessibility setbacks, complete only standards 2 and 3 below. Applicants for front setback variances must also complete Part B.

- (1) The applicant shall demonstrate a showing of good and sufficient cause as follows:
 - a. the request deals solely with the physical characteristics of the property, subdivision lot or land parcel under question; and
 - b. the request is not based on the character of the planned construction or substantial improvement, the personal characteristics of the owner or inhabitants; and
 - c. the request is not based on inconvenience, aesthetic considerations, physical handicaps, personal preferences, the disapproval of neighbors or homeowners' association restrictions:

- (2) Failure to grant the administrative variance would result in exceptional hardship to the applicant: _____

- (3) Granting the administrative variance will not result in increased public expenses, create a threat to public health and safety, create a public nuisance, or cause fraud or victimization of the public: _____

- (4) The property has unique or peculiar circumstances, which apply to the subject property, but which do not apply to other properties in the same zoning district: _____

- (5) Granting the administrative variance will not give the applicant any special privilege denied to other properties in the immediate neighborhood in terms of the provisions of this chapter or established development patterns:

(6) Granting the administrative variance is not based on disabilities, handicaps or health of the applicant or members of her/his family: _____

(7) The administrative variance is the minimum necessary to provide relief to the applicant: _____

FRONT SETBACK CRITERIA: The Planning Director may recommend approval or approve an administrative variance that modifies the minimum front setback requirements provided the applicant demonstrates the following. Please describe how the proposed variance meets each standard. Attach separately, if necessary.

(1) The existing setback average, as measured pursuant to the definition of "setbacks" in Code Section 86-9, on the block of the street within the zoning district in which the subject property is located is less than the zoning district standard, as established in Code Chapter 122, Article IV:

(2) The waiver will not result in a setback that is less than the existing front yard setback to the furthestmost projection of the main building that is closest to the front lot line on a contiguous lot on either side of the subject property:

(3) The waiver is for an amount not greater than 20% of the zoning district standard as established in Code Chapter 122, Article IV: _____

(4) In the event that a contiguous lot on either side of the subject property is vacant, the zoning district standard shall apply: _____
